

How To Replace Classic Vespa Hand Grips

Originally Published at Scooter Mercator

Replacing your classic Vespa scooter hand grips is easy, does not cost much and improves the confront and look of your scooter.

Use a sharp utility knife to cut the old hand grips off. Clean up any residue rubber.

Slide the new hand grip on. Gently tap the hand grip until it goes all the way to the end. Use a rubber hammer if you have one.

